Dear Mr. Fannon:

I received a brief note early today from Jeff Harris, who left on vacation yesterday, asking me to drop you a line in regard to two pieces of unfinished business.

From what I can make out in the note I was given -- and not having any additional information to go on -- the first matter deals with a WESU refusal on the CATCH-22 contract. They reported to this office that the spots arrived after the run of the film had terminated. This seems fairly straightforward to me.

Without a copy of your original letter -- or perhaps all this arises from phone conversations with Jeff -- the second note is a bit problematical. He has indicated that WMS SPORTS ILLUSTRATED spots were billed for in October. I hope you understand this last reference more fully than I, and that both these matters can now be settled.

Sorry to be so ambiguous. Have a good holiday season and a prosperous New Year.

Sincerely,

S. L. Maier
